Generic Sample: Informed Consent Form

RESEARCH SUBJECT INFORMED CONSENT FORM

Prospective Research Subject: Read this consent form carefully and ask as many questions as you like before you decide whether you want to participate in this research study. You are free to ask questions at any time before, during, or after your participation in this research.

NOTE: This is a generic sample form to help you address most situations. It is not meant to be prescriptive in nature. Rather, it is merely intended as a general description of the type of information that may appear in an informed consent form. Please adapt this form as appropriate and necessary for your research protocol and sponsoring agency or institution.

1. PURPOSE OF THIS RESEARCH STUDY
   - Include 3-5 sentences written in nontechnical language (8th-grade reading level): “You are being asked to participate in a research study designed to....”

2. PROCEDURES
   - Describe procedures: “You will be asked to do....”
   - Identify any procedures that are experimental/investigational/non-therapeutic.
   - Define expected duration of subject's participation.
   - Indicate type and frequency of monitoring during and after the study.

3. POSSIBLE RISKS OR DISCOMFORT
   - Describe known or possible risks. If unknown, state so.
   - If subject's participation will continue over time, state: “Any new information developed during the study that may affect your willingness to continue participation will be communicated to you.”
o If applicable, state that a particular treatment or procedure may involve risks that are currently unforeseeable to the subject.

4. POSSIBLE BENEFITS
o Describe any benefits to the subject that may be reasonably expected. If the research is not of direct benefit to the participant, explain possible benefits to others.

5. FINANCIAL CONSIDERATIONS
o Explain any financial compensation involved or state: “There is no financial compensation for your participation in this research.”
o Describe any additional costs to the subject that might result from participation in this study.

6. AVAILABLE TREATMENT ALTERNATIVES
o If the procedure involves a pilot or experimental form of treatment, indicate whether other non-experimental or conventional treatments are available and compare the relative risks (if known) of each.

7. AVAILABLE MEDICAL TREATMENT FOR ADVERSE EXPERIENCES
o “This study involves minimal risk/greater than minimal risk.” In the event that greater than minimal risk is involved, provide the subject with the following information:

- If you are injured as a direct result of taking part in this research study, emergency medical care will be provided by [name] medical staff or by transporting you to your personal doctor or medical center. Neither the [your site name] nor the [sponsoring agency/organization] will be able to provide you with long-term medical treatment or financial compensation except as may be provided through your employers insurance programs or through whatever remedies are normally available at law.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY

o Describe the extent to which confidentiality of records identifying the subject will be maintained. In addition, list steps to protect confidentiality such as codes for identifying data.

“Your identity in this study will be treated as confidential. The results of the study, including laboratory or any other data, may be published for scientific purposes but will not give your name or include any identifiable references to you.”

“However, any records or data obtained as a result of your participation in this study may be inspected by the sponsor, by any relevant governmental agency, by the (your site name) Institutional Review Board, or by the persons conducting this study, (provided that such inspectors are legally obligated to protect any identifiable information from public disclosure, except where disclosure is otherwise required by law or a court of competent jurisdiction). These records will be kept private in so far as permitted by law.”

If anonymity applies, though, include a statement that reads: “Nobody, including the researcher, can link any data to you or any other particular respondent.” in place of the aforementioned paragraph that begins with “However, ....”
9. TERMINATION OF RESEARCH STUDY

You are free to choose whether or not to participate in this study. There will be no penalty or loss of benefits to which you are otherwise entitled if you choose not to participate. You will be provided with any significant new findings developed during the course of this study that may relate to or influence your willingness to continue participation. In the event you decide to discontinue your participation in the study,

- These are the potential consequences that may result: (list)
- Please notify (name, telephone no., etc.) of your decision or follow this procedure (describe), so that your participation can be orderly terminated.

In addition, your participation in the study may be terminated by the investigator without your consent under the following circumstances. (Describe) It may be necessary for the sponsor of the study to terminate the study without prior notice to, or consent of, the participants in the event that (Describe circumstances, such as loss of funding.)
